The American Educational Research Association – AERA, Annual Meeting 2020, The Power and Possibilities for the Public Good When Researchers and Organizational Stakeholders Collaborate, San Francisco (CA, USA), April 17-21, 2020.

The 2020 theme calls upon us as education researchers to situate our annual convening at the crossroads of deliberate reconnection. Informed and inspired by a «future-oriented historiography» (Kelley, 2018) of our past, we will intentionally come together with stakeholders representing a variety of educational organizations to expand our platform for research, practice, and policy.

For over 50 years, AERA has been structurally disconnected from the educational communities about whom we write. The time has come for AERA to reclaim the historic possibilities of connectivity and collaboration in educational problem solving and to include organizational stakeholders, both national and local, as full participants in the Annual Meeting.

Association of Empirical Aesthetics – IAEA, 26th Biennial Congress, London (UK), September 1-4, 2020.

IAEA is an organization with close ties with APA's Division 10, and is home to researchers who use empirical methods to investigate aesthetics and the creation and perception of art across many domains including music, literature, film, theater, dance, and visual art, among others. Its members from over 20 countries include individuals with backgrounds in psychology, neuroscience, sociology, museology, art history, philosophy, musicology, and other areas of research and practice.

You should consider submitting abstracts and/or symposium proposals on any topic falling within the broad scope of the congress (i.e., creativity, aesthetics, the arts) for consideration in the program.

The Conference will be related to the discussions of the current state of the art in empirical aesthetics, with an eye toward discovering points of convergence in theoretical and methodological approaches that drive research in this area.
