A few months before Uli Sauerland's 50th birthday, we saw a perfect opportunity to put him in the spotlight by presenting him with a collection of snippets as a birthday gift. We asked his classmates, colleagues, collaborators, and cohabitants — past and present — to contribute a Sauerlandian snippet, engaging with some aspect of his work. Uli's scholarly versatility made this task almost too easy. The deadlines we imposed were tight, but our contributors stepped up to the plate, and delivered even more than we could have hoped for. The resulting festschrift was a collection of notes and remarks whose incredible breadth reflected just how wide-ranging Uli's influence on the field has been. This special issue of Snippets contains edited versions of the festschrift contributions.

We'd like to offer our deep gratitude to the editors of Snippets, Sam Alxatib and Isaac Gould, who patiently guided us through the editing process, and offered incredibly detailed editorial feedback on select submissions. We're also indebted to Sam Alxatib, Cory Bill, Winfried Lechner, Guillermo del Pinal, Jack Tomlinson, and Kazuko Yatsushiro for their help with reviewing, as well as to the contributors themselves.
